Por M. Gando

The musical score is written for a band and consists of the following parts:

- Introducción: The first system, marked Allegretto, features a treble clef with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. It begins with a melodic line in the treble and a rhythmic accompaniment in the bass.
- Tempo de Marcha: The second system, marked Tempo de Marcha, introduces a more complex rhythmic pattern with sixteenth notes and rests. It includes a ritard. (ritardando) marking.
- Instrumental Parts: The score continues with multiple systems of staves, each with a treble and bass clef. These parts include various rhythmic figures, such as sixteenth-note runs and dotted rhythms, typical of a marching band arrangement.
